

EXHIBIT C

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

KMM
JUL 05 2005

LAYNE DREXEL,

Plaintiff,

v.

HARLEYSVILLE INSURANCE CO.,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 1:05-cv-428 JJF

ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES OF DEFENDANT HARLEYSVILLE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

Defendant Harleysville Mutual Insurance Company ("Harleysville"), improperly named in the Complaint "Harleysville Insurance Company," by and through its attorneys, for its answer and affirmative defenses:

1. Lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in paragraph 1, and therefore denies the averments and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

2. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 2 of the Complaint, except admits that Harleysville is qualified to transact business within the State of Delaware and denies all averments regarding service through the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Delaware as conclusions of law to which no response is required.

3. Lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in paragraph 3 of the Complaint, and therefore denies the averments and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

4. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 4 of the Complaint, except admits that Harleysville insured Drexel's property at 1740 W. 4th Street, Wilmington, Delaware

DOCKET NO: 2
FILED: 7/1/05

(the "Insured Premises") under Commercial Package Policy No. MPA 812988 (the "Policy"), from June 1999 to June 8, 2004.

5. With regard to the averments contained in paragraph 5, Harleysville respectfully refers the Court to the Policy for the contents thereof.

6. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 6 of the Complaint.

7. With regard to the averments contained in paragraph 7 of the Complaint, Harleysville respectfully refers the Court to the June 18, 2004 letter for the contents thereof.

8. Admits that the premises sustained damage as the result of a fire, but lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining averments in paragraph 8 of the Complaint, and therefore denies the averments and demands strict proof at trial.

9. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 9 of the Complaint, except admits that Drexel reported the loss to Harleysville on June 22, 2004, and that Harleysville acknowledged receipt of the claim on that same date.

10. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 10 of the Complaint. To the contrary, Harleysville did not receive plaintiff's payment until July 14, 2004, one month after Harleysville notified plaintiff of the impending cancellation of the Policy for non-payment.

11. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 11 of the Complaint. To the contrary, Harleysville received a check from plaintiff well after the payment was due, and returned the payment to plaintiff on the same day as it received the payment.

12. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 12 of the Complaint as conclusions of law to which no response is required, except admits that Harleysville retained Tower Insurance Services to inspect the Insured Premises.

13. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 13 of the Complaint, except lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in paragraph 13 of the Complaint relating to Tower Services' communications with Drexel, and demands strict proof at trial.

14. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 14 of the Complaint.

15. With regard to the averments contained in paragraph 15 of the Complaint, Harleysville respectfully refers the Court to the August 1, 2004 letter for the contents thereof.

16. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 16, except lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments in paragraph 16 relating to Booth's completion of the repairs to the Insured Premises.

17. Lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the averments contained in paragraph 17 of the Complaint, and therefore denies the averments and demands strict proof thereof at trial.

18. Denies the averments contained in paragraph 18 of the Complaint insofar as they purport to characterize the contents of the letter dated September 14, 2004, and respectfully refers the Court to that letter for the contents thereof. To the extent a response is required, Harleysville denies the averments contained in paragraph 18 of the Complaint. To the contrary, Harleysville repeatedly notified Drexel that it had not received payment for the Policy, and provided Drexel with more than sufficient opportunity to make that payment. Drexel, however, failed to remit his payment until more than three weeks after the loss.

COUNT I

19. Repeats and restates its responses to the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth.

20.-24. The averments set forth in paragraphs 20 through 24 of the Complaint are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Harleysville denies the averments contained in paragraphs 20 through 24.

COUNT II

25. Repeats and restates its responses to the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth.

26.-29. The averments set forth in paragraphs 26 through 29 of the Complaint are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Harleysville denies the averments contained in paragraphs 26 through 29.

COUNT III

30. Repeats and restates its responses to the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth.

31.-33. The averments set forth in paragraphs 31 through 33 of the Complaint are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Harleysville denies the averments contained in paragraphs 31 through 33.

COUNT IV

34. Repeats and restates its responses to the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth.

35.-37. The averments set forth in paragraphs 35 through 37 of the Complaint are conclusions of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Harleysville denies the averments contained in paragraphs 35 through 37.

WHEREFORE, Harleysville respectfully requests that judgment be entered in its favor and against plaintiff, together with such other relief, including attorneys' fees and costs, as the Court deems just and proper.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a cause of action or any claim upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff has not incurred any damages or losses as a result of Harleysville's conduct.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Harleysville has performed each and every duty owed to plaintiff to the extent that any such duty exists or ever existed.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of estoppel.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiff waived his claims in whole or in part against Harleysville.

WHEREFORE, Harleysville respectfully requests that judgment be entered in its favor and against plaintiff, together with such other relief, including attorneys' fees and costs, as the Court deems just and proper.
